

Observations	Questions
Active Players <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. "Him" refers to Jesus (7)</li> <li>2. The twelve (7)</li> <li>3. Demons (13)</li> <li>4. Sick people (13)</li> </ol> Actions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Jesus calls (7)</li> <li>2. J begins to send (7)</li> <li>3. J sends in pairs of 2 (7)</li> <li>4. J gives authority</li> <li>5. The response of the 12 (12)               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. They preach (12)</li> </ol> </li> </ol>	Active Players <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What is the significance of Jesus being the main focus?</li> <li>2. Who are the twelve that this verse refers to?</li> <li>2. Are these twelve the same that were appointed in 3:13-19?</li> <li>3. Are these demons specific?</li> <li>4. Who are the sick that are being healed?</li> <li>4. Are the sick people only Jews or do they include gentiles?</li> </ol> Actions <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What is the significance of Jesus being the one who calls?</li> <li>1. Is J calling them to himself or calling them to a purpose?</li> <li>2. Is there significance in that Jesus is beginning His sending?</li> <li>2. What does it mean to be sent?</li> <li>2. Is there a reason J has waited until now to send them?</li> <li>2. Why is J only sending the 12?</li> <li>3. Why are they paired up?</li> <li>3. Is there significance in the number 2?</li> <li>3. What should we take away from this pairing and the sending?</li> <li>4. Why is this giving of authority specifically mentioned?</li> <li>4. Is there significance in the fact that J is the one giving the authority?</li> <li>5. How is this response different than other references in Mark?</li> <li>5. Do the 12 go immediately after being called?</li> <li>5. Where to the 12 go? To what locations?               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a. Where do they preach?</li> <li>a. Why are they preaching?</li> </ol> </li> </ol>

b. They drive out demons (13) c. They anointed (13) d. They healed (13) Purpose <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The purpose of calling is to send (7)</li> <li>2. The purpose of being called is to respond (12-13)</li> <li>3. The purpose of preaching is for repentance (12)</li> </ol> Implications of being sent <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Only 12 are called in these verses and they respond by being sent in pairs</li> <li>2. The 12 perform very specific acts</li> </ol>	a. Why is preaching mentioned first? b. From whom do they drive out demons? b. Does this order of listing indicate a prescribed method? b. How does this relate to J giving authority? c. Where is anointing mentioned in other parts of Mark? c. What is the significance of anointing with oil? d. Who are they healing d. With what power are the healing d. Why is healing mentioned last? Purpose <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What are the implications of a calling on our lives?</li> <li>2. Are we being taught to call others or only respond?</li> <li>3. How do each of these purposes relate to one another? Should purpose of calling be a prerequisite for preaching? Are there underlying implications to the order of these purposes? Do the purposes relate back to the order in which the 12 respond?</li> </ol> Implications <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. What can we learn from the calling and sending of these specific people? What are the implications of this specific calling to all of our lives? What does the pairing of the 12 indicate about how we are called and sent?</li> <li>2. What are the implications of these acts? Are they supposed to be followed in a specific order? What do these acts say about J's ministry?</li> </ol>
----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

McCartney

DO Mark 6:7, 12-13 (NIV)